

Tracker Financial Services Complaints Resolution policy

Version 2 – May 2018

1. Overview

Customer satisfaction and Treating Customers fairly are an integral part of the Tracker Financial Services (herein after referred to as “TFSP”) culture and we appreciate it when our clients bring their concerns to our attention. In doing so it doesn’t only allow us to correct the matters, but most importantly, it allow us to continuously improve the Service Excellence that we strive to provide to our valued clients.

This policy will be used by our employees to ensure that every complaint is dealt with the necessary professionalism.

The purpose of this policy is to:

- Ensure that the effective, fair and speedy resolution of all complaints are properly administered and controlled within TFSP.
- Ensure that TFSP complies with the Short-term Insurance Act, Financial Advisory and Intermediary Services Act (FAIS Act) and/or the Policy Holder Protection Rules (PPR), TCF Complaints Handling framework and any other applicable legislation.

2. Definition of an Enquiry

An enquiry could be a late claims payment, a query on an amount paid, non-receipt of a premium etc. Simple queries do not necessarily constitute a complaint.

3. Definition of a Complaint

Any oral or verbal expression of dissatisfaction, whether justified or not, relating to an agreement with a financial institution or a product or service provided or offered by the institution. Generally, in a complaint the complainant would allege that he or she or the person they represent has suffered, or may suffer, financial loss or prejudice or distress or inconvenience.

4. Complaints policy

TFSP has an internal complains resolution process based on the following:

- We are transparent, ensuring that our clients have full knowledge of the procedures to have their complaints resolved and staying updated on progress.
- We promise fairness at all times when dealing with complaints.

5. Responsibilities relating to the complaints procedure

5.1 Policy holder responsibilities:

Should you not be entirely satisfied with the outcome of our resolution, please direct your complaint and any supporting documentation to the following parties:

Level 3:

a) Should you not be satisfied you may re-direct your complaint and all supporting documents to the following parties, in writing, within a 6 months period of receipt of such feedback from TFSP. (A form attached for your perusal)

• The Short Term Insurance Ombudsman:

Telephone: (011) 726 – 8900

Fax: (011) 726 5501

Website: www.osti.co.za

The Ombudsman's task is to act as a "mediator" or informal arbitrator and he/she does not represent either of the parties to the dispute. Important points to remember:

- We encourage you to complain to insurance company first and only if you are unable to resolve the dispute with your insurer, then you can refer the matter to the Ombudsman's Office
- The Ombudsman's decisions are binding on the insurance company but not on you. The Ombudsman's Office is an independent office.
- The Ombudsman's decisions can be based on law and equity
- The Ombudsman's Office does not give legal advice
- The service is free to insured consumers
- The Short Term Insurance Ombud offers consumers a "no risk" mechanism to resolve disputes with insurers. The office can assist consumers with certain personal lines short term insurance as well as with limited commercial insurance matters.
- Refer to the website as noted above for more details.

• The FAIS Ombudsman:

Telephone: (012) 470-9080

Fax: (012) 348-3447

Website: www.faisombud.co.za

The FAIS Ombud deals with complaints submitted to the Office by a specific client against a financial services provider.

"Complaint" means a specific complaint relating to a financial service rendered by a financial services provider or a representative of such provider to the complainant. The complaint will be considered if it is alleged that the provider or representative:

- Has contravened or failed to comply with a provision of the FAIS Act and that as a result thereof the complainant has suffered or is likely to suffer financial prejudice or damage;
- Has wilfully or negligently rendered a financial service to the complainant and has caused prejudice or damage to the complainant or which is likely to result in such prejudice or damage; or
- Has treated the complainant unfairly;
- The act of omission complained about must have occurred on or after 30 September 2004.
- Before submitting a complaint to the Office, the complainant must endeavour to resolve the complaint with the responding party. The responding party has six weeks in which to resolve the complaint with the complainant.

- After receipt of the final response of the responding party, the complainant has six months within which to submit a complaint to the FAIS Ombud.
- Refer to the website as noted above for more details.

- The Registrar of Short Term Insurance:

Telephone: (012) 428-8000

Fax: (012) 346 -6941

Website: www.fsca.co.za

The Registrar's duties are wide ranging and must ensure that Insurers comply with the following, however not limited to:

- Submission of statements and accounts;
- Statement of liabilities;
- Statement of assets;
- Solvency margin regulation;
- Separation of assets;
- Commission rates for intermediaries;
- Refer to the website as noted above for more details.
